

RestaurantFurniture.com Launches Online to Provide One Place for Restaurateurs' Furniture Needs

The Ultimate Restaurant Furniture Source has it all: restaurant chairs and tables, patio umbrellas, heating solutions, restaurant lounge seating ... and so much more!

Austin, TX (PRWEB) May 06, 2015 -- For the restaurateur opening a first restaurant or one expanding an existing restaurant, one thing is certain: Having high quality, weather resistant, durable yet stylish furniture in your establishment is sure to keep customers coming back. Appearance plays a vital role in the success of every restaurant, and every restaurant owner or commercial interior designer has gone through the frustration and trouble of searching for the ideal furniture. Additionally, dealing with separate vendors adds unwanted complexity and time to the opening schedule and can lead to a disjointed overall look. RestaurantFurniture.com exists to alleviate those hassles and to provide immediate solutions to all furnishing needs.

This new website – RestaurantFurniture.com – just launched on Monday, April 27th, and is staffed by a veteran sales team with over 30 years of combined experience in the industry. Tasked with providing personalized service to those in the restaurant, hospitality, and design industries, RestaurantFurniture.com delivers high quality commercial grade furniture choices, more than any other site on the web. They eliminate the headaches and hassles restaurateurs face when searching for furniture that complements their décor. From lounge to fine dining, outdoor furniture to indoor furniture, RestaurantFurniture.com has it all: bar stools, chairs, booths and banquettes, table tops and bases, patio umbrellas... you name it. The company has knowledgeable account executives to personally answer any questions one may have, either by phone, email, or through the site's live chat feature.

In hospitality and restaurant industries, the importance of commercial quality furniture cannot be overstated. Not all furniture is created equally, and while many pieces look similar to those offered on RestaurantFurniture.com, most others are composed of lightweight and commercially untested materials. This innovative new site offers only 100% commercial grade furniture, all tested and developed for the restaurant, hospitality and resort industries. Visit the site today to see why RestaurantFurniture.com is the one place for all of your restaurant furniture needs.
